22 JUN 1986

MEMORANDUM FOR:

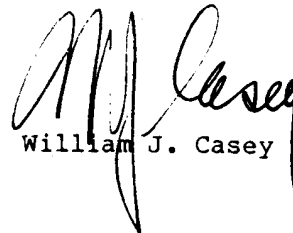

[Redacted]
Clinical Activities Division, Office of Medical Services

FROM: Director of Central Intelligence

SUBJECT: The Pursuit of Excellence

1. Recently I asked each of the Directorates to give me an update on examples of individual and team accomplishments similar to those I shared with you over the past year.

2. One of the examples was your superior performance in preventing psychiatric and stress related problems from manifesting themselves in our field stations throughout the world. I wanted you to know that I am aware of your accomplishments in establishing an effective way to assist our people given the current international climate. Consequently, I want to thank you personally for your dedication, hard work, and the special pride you take in attaining new levels of excellence.
